I Am Nothing (1 Cor. 13:3)

D

Dm

Α

Words by R. Scott Jacobs and Philip Robinson
Music by R. Scott Jacobs
©2009 Elvis Aaron Publishing/BMI and Kim's Kastle Publishing/BMI

(CAPO One) If I give away all that I have or give this body up to be burned and have not love, I am nothing If I speak in tongues and dance, prophesy and I lift my hands and have not love, I gain nothing I could learn all the Greek and Hebrew words, understand all the mysteries of God's word Without love, it don't mean a thing E7 I can have faith to move a mountain high, walk on the waters deep and wide Without love, I am nothing v-2 Lord we know the day will come when the hidden things will be known, change our hearts, grant us mercy So often we fail to show the kind of love we claim to know, cleanse our hearts from all that's earthly Let our thoughts and deeds be purified, let's our motives flow from your throne on high, Oh God, let us never stray Let us love the rich and poor the same so that all can find hope in your name, Oh God, for this we pray (Instrumental) 2X: Α A7 D Dm E7 D Love is patient, love is kind, envy's not, has no pride-God's love, I want to live that way

Love rejoices in the truth, believes all things, brings hope anew-God's love, it will never fail

A7

We can have faith, hope, and love, but the one that stands above in God's eyes,.... is love

Α